Professionalism and Ethics in Education

Wednesday, September 5, 2012
4:30-5:30 p.m.
UCF Orlando Campus: Teaching Academy Room TA 130

A major component to the field of education is Teacher Professionalism. Since teachers are propelled to become role models for all young learners, it is imperative that professionalism and ethics are of the utmost priority when conducting any learning environment. Your professionalism as an educator has a direct impact of the growth of your students. As teacher autonomy grows, so do a teacher’s impeccable ability & desire to reach the growing minds of all learners. Join me in a thoughtful, revealing, and revitalizing discussion on the power of professionalism and the role of ethics within the public school system.

No pre-registration is necessary. Simply show up, learn, and have fun.

Audience level: All

Presenter: Dr. Jason Ampel, UCF College of Education Faculty

Facilitator: Dr. Karen Verkler, HAPPY Hour Chair

Hosted by: The UCF College of Education, School of Teaching, Learning, and Leadership

For more information, contact Dr. Karen Verkler, HAPPY Hour Chair, at Karen.Verkler@ucf.edu.